How to enjoy your stay

You are going to love your stay at this wonderful property a complete recharge or place to reconnect. Following are some things to do across your stay that you may like to book! As you arrive in Milton pickup some last minutes at the IGA found just behind the main street. With wonderful produce opportunities across the town to enjoy such as the Milton Farm Shop the Milton Wholefoods Store and indulge in the Woodstock Chocolate Shop before heading up to the property.

Mind Body Time

With views across the farmlands, waterways and bush Woodstock Homestead is the perfect place to relax and rejuvenate yourselves. Jackys yoga will come to the property and offers classes, courses and workshops that is perfect for a group. For retreat opportunities check in with Little Forest Farm who have a calendar of wonderful workshops and retreats.

Nourish Yourself

Milton is really becoming known as a 'foodie town'. This natural progression into the space is a perfect match for visitors of Woodstock Homestead. With wonderful restaurants such as Harvest, Small Town, Milkhaus and Gwylo in Mollymook along with The Milton Hotel and their Dangerous Ales Brewery to enjoy. The Altar Wine Bar is somewhere you need to visit, perfect spot for a sundowner with a cheese platter to enjoy. We have a great article on more ways to discover this beautiful town and region!

If you are wanting to stay put and celebrate with an inhouse chef Citrus Catering will offer a menu that can be created at Woodstock Homestead. A private sommelier that offers a wine and food pairing menu is another wonderful opportunity that comes to you. For the diy chef staying at Woodstock, the local produce shop, Milton Lamb, Martins Ridge Farm both offering organic meat to purchase and if mushrooms are part of the recipe then Milton Mushrooms are a must!

We also recommend a trip to Lagom Bakery just down the road in Burril Lake for the best sourdough on the south coast.

Finally, for a grazing opportunity there is Annies Grazing Boxes delivered throughout your stay at your request.
